

The Inman Company

Residential and Commercial Interior Design

Welcomes Brooke Arciniega

The Inman Company welcomes Brooke Arciniega as the new interior designer for its Traverse City, Michigan office. A Traverse City local, Brooke attended Michigan State

University, graduating in May 2009 with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Interior Design. Along with her university studies, she was Student Chapter President of the MSU-ASID (American Society of Interior Designers). Brooke was introduced to The Inman Company as an intern and worked on projects such as the Law Offices of Gerald F. Chefalo, 2008 Ugly Kitchen Contest, and 2009 Parade of Homes. Brooke is actively pursuing her

National Council of Interior Design Qualification (NCIDQ) licensure, Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design (LEED) certification, and an Associate Kitchen and Bath Designer (AKBD) certification. She is also an Allied Member of the American Society of Interior Designers (ASID).
